Rebus Collection

Salone del Mobile 2016

This year, the fine cabinetmaking art of the company shaped the Rebus Collection a refined collection rich in charms, characterized by the spirit that has always distinguished the Fratelli Boffi collections. On the occasion of the Salone del Mobile 2016 the company introduced its new collaboration with the design duo Analogia Project the studio created by Andrea Mancuso and Emilia Serra who outlined a sumptuous installation which was elegant and kaleidoscopic, with surfaces to be discovered in every detail and finish.

The Rebus Collection once again reiterates the extravagant and ironic character of Fratelli Boffi, exalting its traditional workmanship of wood and its ability to produce custom-made projects, putting almost a century of experience at the service of architects and designers combined with an unmistakable style capable of molding products able to cross the border from being simple pieces of furniture and transform themselves into expressive and symbolic objects.
